Join members from across Florida and human rights defenders around the world for the 2006 Amnesty International Florida State Conference in one of the world's most exciting and international metropolitan areas—Miami.

During this conference, nationally and internationally renowned speakers, panelists, activist members and staff of AIUSA will explore concrete strategies for confronting national and international human rights violations.

This is your chance to meet, learn and discuss human rights strategies and develop expertise in the rapidly changing field of human rights.
